CapMan Buyout team is looking for an

Investment Trainee

CapMan Buyout combines extensive industrial experience, strong analytical skills and sound business judgment to identify and develop the most attractive investment opportunities in the Nordic region. We have a long-term, industrial and hands-on approach with a strong ambition to develop Nordic market leaders. At CapMan Buyout we are 12 investment professionals in Finland and Sweden working closely together in cross-border teams, evaluating and executing attractive investment opportunities, and supporting value creation in our portfolio companies through active ownership. CapMan has an outstanding track record in middle-market buyout investing.

As an Investment Trainee, you will participate in the Buyout team's day-to-day operations. You will assist the team in evaluating new investment opportunities, supporting portfolio company development and participating in general transactional work. Your typical tasks include company and industry analysis, financial modelling and presenting your conclusions.

You have an academic background in finance, industrial management or similar field of studies with outstanding grades. You have strong analytical skills and you master the use of PowerPoint and Excel. You are a pragmatic, energetic, diligent and self-driven team player. Ideally you have gained experience from investment banking, management consulting or other relevant industry. We expect you to be fluent in Finnish and English.

We offer you a unique opportunity to become familiar with the private equity industry as part of a dynamic organisation in our Helsinki office. The position is fixed-term and part-time (50-100% depending on workload, compensation based on mutually agreed actual hours) with flexibility regarding duration and starting time. We are looking for two persons, one for fall 2018 and another for spring 2019. The earliest start for the first traineeship is in August 2018.

For more information, please visit www.capman.com or contact Investment Manager Laura Karikko, +358 50 372 8555. To apply, please send your application together with your CV and university grade transcript to recruitment@capman.com with "Investment Trainee + Your Last name" in the subject field. The positions will be filled when suitable candidates are found.
