

Nordea Graduate Programme 2019

If you're longing for something much more than the run-of-the-mill graduate programme, then you have come to the right place. We enable you to develop beyond pre-defined tracks. You've got the freedom to take ownership right from the start.

The programme is designed to provide you as a selected and talented graduate a unique opportunity to kick-start your career by learning and developing professionally and personally while building a valuable global network.
